My dear Mr. Brewster:

I would be very glad to oblige you but I do not myself have a single letter of my father's & I do not know where one could be obtained. Of course there are plenty of such letters (The late E. B. Washburn had several) but the answer would part with them - If a signature cut from a cancelled check will do any good, I can give you that.

Yours truly
Robert Lincoln
