"With malice toward none,
with charity toward all"

Dear Sister it is a little late for a card like this but the old saying is better late than never I received your letter all O.K. I meant to have answered before but could not get to it I am writing this in the middle of the night I hope you are gaining fast but I cant say that I am I dont feel very extra fine yet. as ever your sister G. M. L. & family
