

Ten Haute, Jan. 28. 1863.
Col R. M. Thompson
Washington City
D. C.

Dear Sir: I wrote you some two weeks ago. Can any thing be done about getting me a discharge.

The people are well pleased here with the change of Commander of the army of the Potomac.

I understood yesterday that some 36 regiment from Ky. were on their way to reinforce Rosecrans.

Very truly,
E. B. Allen
