

R. Johnson

March 23 1857

My dear Thompson,

It is now since

I wrote this afternoon

proceed that I may be able to get to

Wash. on Wednesday

if I can, - I will.

It is hardly possible,

the way of service will not be that to

and

question to be decided by him, is your right to the money
under the law, as it is. As to your opinion it is not containing a necessary change. Kate
has promised me yesterday, that I would write her
if any difficulty.

account, & I hope to get a letter to know, if I do, I will enter it to you
at once. If you are compelled to return home, have a power of atty.
to receive the money.

That it will be paid, I do not cannot doubt.

So keep your

Yours
spiritly

Wm. James
with some

being

paid,

Randy Whisen

House

R. C. Thompson

1862